Effect Size Estimation

Nathan (Nat) Goodman

January 1, 2019

A collection of R scripts and documents exploring effect size estimation. I use simulation to work backwards from samples to population. This better mimics real world practice than the usual forward simulation from population to samples.

The current version is just a placeholder.

Comments Please!

Please post comments using the GitHub Issue Tracker.